

Look Up toward God:

1. Craving the Jesus Stuff:

- The sermon describes "The Jesus Stuff" as a life that reflects the qualities and teachings of Jesus. How do you personally define "The Jesus Stuff" in your life? What aspects of Jesus' life and ministry inspire you the most?
- The sermon noted that Jesus did many more things than could be recorded. How does this encourage you to seek more of Jesus' presence and work in your life?

2. The Call to Discipleship:

- In the Great Commission, Jesus gives his followers the command to make disciples. How does this call resonate with you? What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus?
- Blaise Pascal spoke of a "God-shaped vacuum" in each heart. How do you see this idea reflected in people's spiritual longings and desire for deeper meaning?

Look In toward Self:

3. Being a Disciple of Jesus:

- What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus in your everyday life? How can you prioritize following Jesus and becoming more like him?
- Examine the two aspects of discipleship: personal and communal. Which aspect do you find more challenging, and why? What steps can you take to grow in both areas?

4. Invitation and Confirmation:

- Philip's invitation to Nathanael to "come and see" was a turning point. What does this story teach us about the importance of inviting others to encounter Jesus? Have you experienced moments of invitation or confirmation in your spiritual journey?
- Nathanael's encounter with Jesus under the fig tree was a significant moment of confirmation. How does this story illustrate the personal nature of God's call and the unique ways He sees and knows us?

Look Out toward Others:

5. Making Disciples:

- The Great Commission calls us to make disciples of all nations. How does this guide your interactions with others? What are some practical ways to make disciples in your context?
- Reflect on the communal aspect of discipleship. How can you intentionally lead others to follow Jesus? Who are the people in your life you are discipling, or who could benefit from your spiritual guidance?

6. Living a Life of Invitation:

- How can you adopt an attitude of invitation in your daily life? What holds you back from inviting others to "come and see" what Jesus offers?

- Consider the importance of seeing opportunities for discipleship in everyday moments. How can you cultivate a mindset that recognizes and responds to these opportunities?

Conclusion:

- Close your discussion with a prayer, asking God to give you a heart of discipleship and a spirit of invitation. Pray for guidance and courage to live out the Great Commission and invite others into a deeper relationship with Jesus.
